

People.Health.Care.

Scan to register

Webinar Invitation

The role of compression therapy in Post Mastectomy Lymphedema

 24th October

 09:00 (CET)

 Online (TEAMS)

This webinar is organized by Lohmann & Rauscher

ABOUT L&R

Lohmann & Rauscher (L&R) is a leading international supplier of medical devices and hygiene products of the highest quality. We develop complete solutions for the problems faced by patients and healthcare professionals, specializing in compression therapy, wound care and, OR products.

For more than 170 years we have been identifying changes and trends in the healthcare market and proactively integrating them into our business activities. Our employees' commitment and our commitment to sustainable actions ensure our mutual success over the long term. The result is outstanding products closely attuned to our customers' needs.

WEBINAR OBJECTIVE

- Overview of lymphedema in breast cancer survivors.
- Benefits and effectiveness of compression therapy.
- Practical insights on selecting and using compression garments.
- Q&A session with Mr. Evripidis Triantafyllou.

KNOW MORE ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Mr. Evripidis Triantafyllou

Mr. Evripidis graduated physiotherapist from Athens in 2004 and, now he is a dedicated lymphedema therapist and instructor.

He completed his training on the Vodder method for Oedema Management and he is a member and certified instructor of the German School for Lymphedema of ZML Pritschow.

He is a member of the Greek, German, and International Society of Lymphology. One of the founding members of the Scientific Group for Lymphedema (APLESO) of the Greek Physiotherapists Association.

He is the first physiotherapist member of the scientific board of the Association for Women with breast cancer "Alma Zois".

REGISTER NOW

<https://events.teams.microsoft.com/event/26f3d605-a86d-4aee-8286-170aa8bad3b3@00dec774-f1c9-4cca-9fc7-736cab12006c>